Transportable Isolation Housing

These isolation pods are designed by Bill Dunster OBE, recognised for his outstanding work in low energy, sustainable housing and commercial premises.

The Covid-19 crisis has created a critical need for many to live in isolation. These innovative isolation pods provide an ideal solution, protecting both those affected and those around them. These units provide an ideal solution for companies looking to house key workers or private individuals requiring rapidly available extra living space. They are fully transportable, self-contained and designed with modern comfort in mind. Subject to specification, they can be delivered ready to connect into the mains system or for off grid living. These isolation pods have been designed and are ready to manufacture.

Background of the company:

With years of expertise and experience between its directors, NaviHo is proud to be regarded as a creative leader. Every decision is inspired by their main mission, which is to provide the highest standard of products and services. In this rapidly changing industry, they have realised the importance of continually updating their approach to stay relevant in the market, and they are committed to just that.

Rightsized Tiny House/Caravans have minimised the use of plastic and replaced it with wood and recyclable metals. They are designed to last 50 years plus, instead of 15 using sustainable materials. The Rightsized model requires minimal infrastructure, has self-generating off grid utilities allowing modern, minimalist and low carbon cool living. Rightsized Ltd have the product, the exclusive agencies and access to the patents, IP and technical knowledge capable of addressing this large market opportunity.
